COMMON ORDER: (Per Hon'ble Smt. Justice T. Meena Kumari)

These writ petitions are taken up on the Telegram dated 27.09.2005 sent by the petitioners seeking a direction to the respondents to produce their husbands viz., Somineni Venakta Subbaiah Naidu, T. Sanjeeva Rao and N. Viswanath Achari, who were illegally taken away by the respondents, before this Court and set them at liberty.

Since the alleged detenu are concerned with one and the same crime and the police station, these writ petitions are being disposed of by a common order.

In the counter-affidavit, it is stated that the alleged detenu are the accused in Crime No:87 of 2005 of Rajampeta Police station, Kadapa District, for the offences under sections 147, 148, 324, 326, 307, 302 read with Section 149 IPC, 120(b) IPC and Section 3 (1)(x) of SC and ST (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 and in that connection, they were arrested on the respective dates and produced before the learned Judicial Magistrate of First Class, Rajampet and remanded to judicial custody.

The learned Advocate General has submitted across the Bar that the alleged detenu are the accused in the above crime and in that connection, they were arrested and remanded to judicial custody.

In view of the submission made by the learned Advocate General and in view of the averments in the counter affidavit, we feel that no further orders are necessary in these writ petitions.

Accordingly, these writ petitions are dismissed.
